HARBOR DISTRICT CHAMBERS SOUND CALL FOR CLEAN-UP

The following resolution, passed by the Harbor District Chambers of Commerce, is published by request:
"Whereas, The attractiveness and beauty of Los Angeles county is one of our most important assets; and
"Whereas, Rubbish, old papers, tin cans and other litter along our highways, railway lines and in our cities and towns detracts seriously from the beauty of our county; and
"Whereas, This is of especial seriousness in view of the fact that 1924 will be a year in which many conventions will be held in Los Angeles county, in particular the biennial conference of Federated Woman's Clubs and the National Conference on City Planning; therefore,
"Be It Resolved, By the Harbor District Chambers of Commerce, in regular session assembled, at Bell, California, this 13th day of March, 1924, that special attention be called to the necessity for cleaning up all unsightly litter and maintaining a clean county of all possible attractiveness to our visitors, and of satisfaction and pleasure to ourselves; and
"Be It Resolved, That this organization urges picnicers to refrain from scattering litter, newsboys to keep their stands clean of scattered papers, and all others to exercise care in disposing of rubbish; and
"Be It Resolved, That all residents of the county be asked to co-operate by keeping their yards and the parkways and gutters in front of their houses and places of business clean of rubbish and as attractive as possible; and
"Be It Resolved, That this organization urges the governing bodies of all cities in the county, all city planning commissions, the board of supervisors, chambers of commerce, improvement associations, realty boards, clubs, churches, lodges, and all other organizations to carry out the purpose of this resolution by publicity and action; and
"Be It Further Resolved, That all newspapers, magazines and motion picture producers and exhibitors be urged to give this move for a clean county the fullest possible publicity."

HARBOR CITY NEWS NOTES

Rev. Summers and F. G. Hodges were in Los Angeles Wednesday on business pertaining to the welfare of the community.

Leroy A. Wilson is reported on the sick list.

Jess Pettit and Stanley Aspittle attended a meeting of the San Pedro Boy Rangers Wednesday evening, when Jess became a member of the organization. But two more members are needed now for a local troop.

J. T. Aspittle of Weston street, an employe of the city, is suffering with a badly cut ankle, sustained while at his work.

There was a very good attendance at Fathers' Night, held Monday evening by the Parent-Teacher association. A short talk was given by the principal of the local schools, Mrs. Bautzer, and Rev. Summers' reading was greatly enjoyed. Several selections were rendered by the school orchestra, and community singing formed a part of the evening's entertainment. Sandwiches and coffee were served.

The Rose club held a pie social last Tuesday evening. Games, dancing and music furnished diversion for the goodly number that were present. The music for the occasion was furnished by J. T. Aspittle.

Laura M., wife of Arthur H. Funk, passed away Sunday evening, at the age of 30 years. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon from the Cleveland parlors in San Pedro by Rev. Snyder of Long Beach. Interment was made in Inglewood cemetery.

Mrs. Funk is survived by the husband and a 2-year-old daughter, Eunice Laurabelle; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Krouse; three sisters, Mrs. Lona Zumach, Mrs. L. C. Dryer and Mrs. Emma Reide; three brothers, Augustave, Walter and Harold Krouse, all of Fenton, Ia., and a sister, Mrs. Myers, of Fort Dodge, Ia. Mrs. Funk's parents arrived here a few hours before her death.

THIEVES ENTER HUGO SCHMIDT MARKET, BUT LOOT IS SMALL

Gaining entrance through a skylight and leaving by a rear door, thieves invaded the Schmidt market Tuesday night between 9 and 10 o'clock. A pair of binoculars, prized highly by Mr. Schmidt for its associations, was the only article of value missed. A few cents were obtained from the cash registers of the meat market and grocery store.

C. A. Crane, financial secretary. Mrs. W. H. Martin and Mrs. Rogers, members of the Eshelman school faculty, were appointed historian and auditor, respectively.

A very successful membership drive was reported. Pupils of the first and second grades entertained with song and folk dances; the latter were especially clever. Refreshments of cake and coffee were served.

Let us refresh your memory concerning the two P.-T.-A.s. The Central P.-T.-A. meets the second Tuesday and the South P.-T.-A. the fourth Tuesday of each month. The Central organization holds forth at the high school auditorium, and the South at the Eshelman school.

One may be a member of both organizations. Why not belong to both? The combined membership fees only amount to 75 cents.

At the meeting Tuesday of the South Parent-Teacher association the following officers were elected: Mrs. Arthur Hodge, president; Mrs. George Miller, first vice-president; Mrs. McCarty, second vice-president; Mrs. O. E. Erickson, treasurer; Mrs. Roy Hathaway, recording secretary; Mrs.
